[Attention: The application period of the 2023 Official Languages Officer II Recruitment Exercises has already ended on 17 February 2023. The information below is FOR YOUR REFERENCE ONLY.]

(I) Salary:

Master Pay Scale Point 14 ($30,990) to Master Pay Scale Point 27 ($57,395) per month

(II) Entry Requirements:

Applicants should have:

- (a) a bachelor's degree from a university in Hong Kong, or equivalent<sup>Notes 1-2</sup> ;
- (b) attained Level 2 results in the two language papers (Use of Chinese and Use of English) in the Common Recruitment Examination (CRE), or equivalent<sup>Note 3</sup>; and
- (c) a pass result in the Basic Law and National Security Law Test (BLNST) (Degree/Professional Grades)<sup>Note 4</sup>.

(Remarks: Applicants will be required to pass the Official Languages Officer Written Examination (OLOWE) [details given in paragraph (III) below].)

[Note 1: Holders of academic qualifications other than those obtained from Hong Kong institutions/Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority may also apply but their qualifications will be subject to assessments on equivalence with the required entry qualifications. Please refer to paragraph (VI)(c) for details on the submission of documentary proof of non-local academic qualifications.

Note 2: Current final year undergraduates may also apply. If they are selected, appointment will be subject to their obtaining the requisite academic qualification within the 2022/23 academic year.

Note 3: Results in the Use of Chinese (UC) and Use of English (UE) papers of the CRE are classified as Level 2, Level 1 or Fail, with Level 2 being the highest. Level 2 and Level 1 results of the two language papers obtained in or after December 2006 are of permanent validity. Applicants with valid requisite results in the UC and UE papers obtained in previous CREs are deemed to have met the entry requirement in paragraph II(b).

Level 5 or above in Chinese Language of the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSEE) is accepted as equivalent to Level 2 in the UC paper of the CRE. Level 5 or above in English Language of the HKDSEE is accepted as equivalent to Level 2 in the UE paper of the CRE.

Grade C or above in Chinese Language and Culture or Chinese Language and Literature of the Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination (HKALE) is accepted as equivalent to Level 2 in the UC paper of the CRE. Grade C or above in Use of English of the HKALE or English Language of the General Certificate of Education (Advanced Level) is accepted as equivalent to Level 2 in the UE paper of the CRE.

An overall band of 6.5 or above with no subtest score below band 6 obtained in the same sitting in the Academic Module of the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) within the two-year validity period of the test is accepted as equivalent to Level 2 in the UE paper of the CRE. The IELTS test result must be valid on any date during the application period (i.e. from 3 to 17 February 2023).]

Note 4: All applicants for civil service jobs will be assessed on their knowledge of the Basic Law and the National Security Law. A pass result in the BLNST is an entry requirement for all civil service jobs. Only those candidates who have passed the BLNST will be considered for appointment. For candidates who have not taken the relevant BLNST or have not attained a pass result in the relevant BLNST at the time of application, they may still apply for the job and arrangements will be made for them to take the relevant BLNST during the recruitment process.

(III) Official Languages Officer Written Examination (OLOWE):

Eligible applicants will be invited to sit for the OLOWE, which is tentatively scheduled for April 2023 in Hong Kong. The OLOWE includes papers on Practical Writing (Chinese and English) and Translation (Chinese to English and vice versa). Applicants who pass the OLOWE will be selected for interpretation test and interview based on their results in the OLOWE. Those who are not selected for interpretation test and interview will be notified in writing in eight to ten weeks after the examination. As it takes time to process all applications, an invitation to the OLOWE does not imply that an applicant's qualifications meet the entry requirements.

(IV) Duties:

Official Languages Officers II are mainly deployed on the following types of duties in bureaux and departments:

- (a) translating Chinese into English and vice versa;
- (b) interpreting in English, Cantonese and/or Putonghua at boards, committees, meetings and interviews;
- (c) attending meetings for the purpose of producing minutes in Chinese and/or English;
- (d) providing language-related support services such as drafting and vetting documents in Chinese and English, and advising on the use of the two official languages; and
- (e) assisting in office management work.

(V) Terms of Appointment:

A new appointee will normally be appointed on civil service probationary terms for three years. Upon passage of probation bar, the officer may be considered for appointment on the prevailing permanent terms.

- (a) Candidates must be permanent residents of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region at the time of appointment.
- (b) As an Equal Opportunities Employer, the Government is committed to eliminating discrimination in employment. The vacancy advertised is open to all applicants meeting the basic entry requirements irrespective of their disability, sex, marital status, pregnancy, age, family status, sexual orientation and race.
- (c) Civil service vacancies are posts on the civil service establishment. Candidates selected for these vacancies will be appointed on civil service terms of appointment and conditions of service and will become civil servants on appointment.
- (d) The entry pay, terms of appointment and conditions of service to be offered are subject to the provisions prevailing at the time the offer of appointment is made.

- (e) The information on the monthly salary and maximum pay point is for reference only and may be subject to changes.
- (f) Fringe benefits include paid leave, medical and dental benefits, and where appropriate, assistance in housing.
- (g) Where a large number of candidates meet the specified entry requirements, shortlisting criteria may be devised to select the better qualified candidates for further processing. In these circumstances, only shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend the interpretation test and interview.
- (h) It is the Government's policy to place people with a disability in appropriate jobs wherever possible. If a disabled applicant meets the entry requirements (including a pass in the OLOWE), he/she will be invited to attend the interpretation test and interview without being subject to further shortlisting. Applicants who have declared disabilities found suitable for appointment may be given an appropriate degree of preference over other applicants whose suitability for appointment is considered comparable to that of the former. The Government's policy and other related measures on employment of persons with disabilities are set out in the booklet "Employ People Based on Their Abilities – Application for Government Jobs by Persons with Disabilities", which is available for reference on the Civil Service Bureau's website (<https://www.csb.gov.hk>) under "Administration of the Civil Service – Appointments".
