

Guidance Notes for Candidates of Common Recruitment Examination (CRE)
to be held in June 2026

Important Points

- (1) In case unforeseeable changes to the examination arrangements are required, announcement will be made on the Civil Service Bureau (CSB) webpage at www.csb.gov.hk/eng/cre.html.
- (2) Starting and finishing time of examination: please refer to the e-mail issued by the Civil Service Examinations Unit (CSEU) to individual candidates about the examination details (the notification e-mail).
- (3) If you do not receive the notification e-mail by 22 May 2026, you should immediately contact the CSEU by phone at (852) 2537 6429 or by e-mail to csbcseu@csb.gov.hk.
- (4) You MUST arrive at the examination centre punctually and take the examination on the date, and at the time and place specified in the notification e-mail. Any requests for change of examination date / time / venue will NOT be considered.
- (5) Format and sample questions of the CRE are available on the CSB webpage (www.csb.gov.hk/english/recruit/cre/949.html).
- (6) You should study carefully the information in these Guidance Notes. If you violate the rules set out in these Guidance Notes, you are LIABLE TO A PENALTY, e.g. written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc. Candidates are also required to provide explanations on a form after the examination.

Before the Examination

- (7) You should check your body temperature before leaving for the examination centre. If you have a fever or respiratory tract infection symptoms, such as coughing, shortness of breath, or sneezing, you are strongly advised NOT to attend the examination.
- (8) You could wear mask(s) at the examination centre as needed. If you have respiratory tract infection symptoms, you should wear a surgical mask to prevent the spread of infection. Invigilators will ask you to remove your mask temporarily for verification of your identity.
- (9) You should familiarise yourself with the transport route to be taken to the examination centre and arrive at the examination centre punctually according to the arrival time stated in the notification e-mail. You should allow more time for your trip to the examination centre and pay attention to the latest traffic news on radio and television before departing for the examination centre.
- (10) You MUST bring to the examination centre :
 - (a) your identity document, i.e. Hong Kong Identity Card (HKID) (or Passport if Passport Number is reported in the application form) for identity verification. Candidates who fail to produce such proof of identity may not be allowed to take the examination. The British National (Overseas) passport cannot be used as any forms of proof of identity in Hong Kong; and
 - (b) your own stationery, i.e. HB pencils, erasers, rulers and calculators (see paragraph (11) below). Stationery will not be provided at the centre.
- (11) Use of calculators and rulers is permitted only for the Aptitude Test paper. Calculators should be cordless, without printing, graphic / word-display facilities or dictionary functions and silent in operation. Electronic devices with functions / applications other than those of a calculator are NOT permitted.

- (12) A seat number is assigned to you. To facilitate you locating the seat arranged for you, you MUST bring this seat number with you to the examination centre and should check against the seating plan which will be posted at the centre. Failure to bring your seat number may lead to delay in your admission to the centre. The time lost in the examination will NOT be compensated.
- (13) You MUST bring your own watch to time the examination as not all examination centres will have a clock. Complaints about having no clock or not being able to view the clock in the examination centre will NOT be entertained. Watches with functions / applications other than those of timekeeping (e.g. smart watch) are NOT permitted. Please note that you are NOT allowed to use your mobile phones throughout the examination for any purposes, including timekeeping and alarm.
- (14) You may bring an overcoat to the examination centre if necessary.

About Examination Centre Environment

- (15) The CSEU enlists venues' assistance in providing a suitable examination environment for candidates. However, candidates will not be completely shielded from normal background noise (e.g. from outside vehicles, normal school activities, school bell, etc.) during an examination. Claims of performance being affected by normal background noise will NOT be entertained.
- (16) You are advised to bring a jacket to an air-conditioned examination centre. Subject to the actual weather and ventilation condition or health advice, in consultation with the venue owner and support staff, invigilators will decide on the ventilation arrangement (including whether to turn on all ventilation equipment) to provide a suitable environment for taking examinations. You should seek assistance from an invigilator immediately if you have concern on the ventilation condition. Claims of performance being affected by unsuitable room temperature or insufficient ventilation will NOT be entertained.
- (17) If you find any undesirable conditions at your seat (e.g. insufficient lighting, noise disturbance, unsuitable room temperature, insufficient ventilation or dripping water, etc.), you should seek assistance from an invigilator at once. If the need is genuine and a spare seat is available at the centre, the invigilator may arrange another seat for you. If you do not seek assistance from an invigilator at the time the undesirable conditions arise but ask for special consideration after the examination, the request will NOT be entertained.
- (18) Candidates who disturb other candidates by making noise or performing other disturbing/annoying acts during an examination may be relocated to another seat by invigilators. Candidates should follow the instructions from invigilators, or else the candidate is liable to a PENALTY, such as written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc. The examination time lost will NOT be compensated.

Attending the Examination in the Examination Centre

- (19) You are NOT allowed to take photographs, make audio recordings or video recordings in the examination centre before/during/after the examination, and/or display/playback such photographs/audio recordings/video recordings in any forms and/or in any venues, including but not limited to electronically or publicly. Otherwise, you will be given a PENALTY, e.g. written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc.

- (20) Smoking, eating or drinking is NOT allowed in the examination centre. If you need to drink water during the examination, you should seek permission from an invigilator.
- (21) After the start of a paper, you are NOT allowed to leave the examination centre until the end of the paper. If you need to leave early for special reasons, you are required to seek permission from the Presiding Invigilator and provide a written explanation. You are not allowed to return to the examination centre for the paper after you have left.
- (22) Only necessary and permitted stationery can be put on the desk. All other personal belongings, including mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, cameras, recording devices, and other electronic devices* MUST be put under your chair. Mobile phones must NOT be covered by anything and can be clearly seen by the invigilators. You must NOT put any unauthorised articles (including mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, cameras, recording devices, and other electronic devices*) on / in your desk, on your body or in your pockets throughout the examination. You are therefore advised to bring only the necessary and permitted stationery to the examination centre. You are also advised to bring with you a small bag to store your personal belongings. The CSEU assumes no responsibility for any loss of or damage to your personal belongings.
- (23) After entering the examination centre, you are NOT allowed to wear and use any smart glasses. Smart glasses MUST be put under your chair. If you need to wear glasses for taking the examination, you MUST wear normal glasses without any electronic components and smart functions. If you only have smart glasses and have no normal glasses when attending the examination, you will NOT be allowed to wear smart glasses for taking the examination.
- (24) Mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, cameras, recording devices, other electronic devices*, and articles that can emit sound MUST be switched off throughout the examination and you should ensure their functions such as alarm, data recording, data transmission etc. have been turned off. You are solely responsible for ensuring that no sound (including alarm) is emitted from your mobile phone even though your phone is power off.
- (25) If you need to go to the toilet during the examination, you should seek permission from an invigilator. An invigilator will accompany you and you must NOT carry any mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, cameras, recording devices, other electronic devices*, question book, answer sheet or paper to the toilet. The invigilator will record your seat number and the time taken for going to the toilet. You will NOT be given any extra time to make up for the time lost.
- (26) You must NOT turn over the pages of the question book (including after the examination), and must NOT start writing (including filling in seat number or the number of identification document) until you are instructed to do so.
- (27) You must NOT leave your answer sheet in such a position that other candidates can see your answers.
- (28) You must NOT copy any questions on any paper, personal belongings or parts of your body.

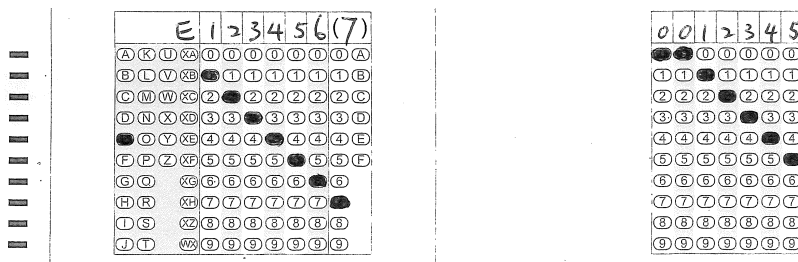

* Electronic devices include any devices with text or graphic display, photograph taking, audio recording, video recording, communication, data recording, data storage, data transmission functions, including but not limited to computers, tablet computers, personal digital assistants, multimedia players, electronic dictionaries, watches, smart watches, smart glasses, cameras, recording devices, earphones, microphones, or wearable technology devices, etc.

- (29) You MUST mark the answers with HB pencils on the multiple-choice answer sheets provided. Answers written in the question book will NOT be marked.
- (30) You must NOT disturb, speak or give signals to other candidates during the examination. Otherwise, you will be given a PENALTY, e.g. written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc.
- (31) When the announcement: “Time is up. Pencils down” is made, you MUST stop working and put down all your stationery immediately. You are NOT allowed to write anything on your answer sheet and you are NOT allowed to use an eraser or other stationery after the “Time is up. Pencils down” announcement. If you are still writing on your answer sheet, or holding your stationery, you will be given a PENALTY, e.g. written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc. If you discover after the “Time is up. Pencils down” announcement that you have not filled in your seat number or the number of your identity document, you should wait until an invigilator comes near and ASK FOR PERMISSION to fill in the relevant information.
- (32) You should listen very carefully and follow the instructions given by the Presiding Invigilator. If you violate the instructions given by the Presiding Invigilator or the rules set out in these Guidance Notes, or act dishonestly in any way during the examination, you are LIABLE TO A PENALTY, e.g. written warning, mark penalty, result downgrading, disqualification from examination, voiding of examination results, etc. You will also be required to provide explanations on a form after the examination.
- (33) If you have serious sneezing or persistent coughing, you may be arranged to sit at the reserved seats of the examination centre in order to minimise disturbance to other candidates. You are required to follow the instructions of the invigilators. The time lost in the examination will NOT be compensated.
- (34) At the end of the examination, invigilators will collect candidates’ question books and answer sheets. You MUST remain seated until you are asked to pack your personal belongings and leave by the Presiding Invigilator.
- (35) You are STRICTLY FORBIDDEN to take away any question books, answer sheets or paper, whether used or unused, out of the examination centre.

Proper Ways of Filling in Multiple-choice Answer Sheets

- (36) The answer sheets will be processed by a computer. Failure to follow the instructions below may result in your answer sheet being rejected by the computer with NO MARK given to you.
- (37) Before going to the questions, you have to write down the following particulars on the answer sheet as instructed by the Presiding Invigilator :
- (a) Passport No. : Write down your HKID Number (or Passport Number if it is OR HKID No. reported in the application form). Please also fill in the 護照號碼 或 appropriate frame under each digit of the HKID Number.
 香港身份證號碼
- (b) Seat No. : Enter your 7-digit seat number and fill in the appropriate frame 座位編號 under each digit. Your seat number for the examination is shown in the notification e-mail.

An example of the instructions in paragraphs 37 (a) to (b) is given below:

- (38) You MUST use an HB pencil to mark your answers. Fill in the answer boxes in the same way as the example shown above. Erase wrong answers thoroughly with a clean eraser and do not fold the answer sheet.
- (39) You will score NO mark for marking two or more answers to the same question.
- (40) As you fill in an answer, check to see that you are answering the right question. Any requests for amending the answers after the “Time is up” announcement will NOT be entertained.

Examination Results

- (41) The examination results in the form of electronic result certificate will be issued within one month after the examination. The CSEU will send an e-mail to you through eproofcseu@csb.gov.hk with the download link of electronic result certificate. Please refer to the CSB webpage (www.csb.gov.hk/tc_chi/recruit/cre/ecert/2926.html) for details. The pass results of the CRE are acceptable for the purpose of applying for civil service jobs. Any appeals against the examination results should be made by e-mail to csbcseu@csb.gov.hk within two weeks from the issuance date of the electronic result certificate. Late submissions will NOT be entertained. If you have obtained Level 2 in the Use of English and Use of Chinese papers or a Pass in the Aptitude Test paper, the review request of the concerned paper(s) will NOT be considered.

Examination Arrangement under Bad Weather

- (42) As a general rule, the examination will be held as scheduled when the Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 3 or below, and / or “Amber” or “Red” Rainstorm Warning Signal is issued. It may be postponed when a Pre-No. 8 Special Announcement or Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 8 or higher, or “Black” Rainstorm Warning Signal is issued, or “extreme conditions” announcement by the Government is in force.
- (43) In the event of bad weather on the examination day, before you leave for the examination centre, you should visit the CSB webpage at www.csb.gov.hk/eng/cre.html, and pay attention to the radio / television broadcast for the latest examination arrangements.

Others

- (44) Parking facilities will not be provided for candidates at the examination venues.
- (45) You should not, without permission, enter the offices, classrooms or any areas in the examination venue not open to candidates.
- (46) The CRE is held independently of the recruitment process for any civil service posts. Persons who wish to apply for civil service posts should apply to the recruiting departments / grades direct. The acquisition of the requisite CRE results does not imply that a candidate has fully met the entry requirements of any civil service posts at degree or professional level. Vetting of academic and / or professional qualifications will be carried out by the recruiting departments / grades which may also conduct separate examinations / interviews.

- (47) If you do not meet the eligibility requirements as stipulated in the Application Form / Notes for Applicants for the CRE (June 2026), you will be liable to disqualification from examination and / or voiding of examination results.
